License Continuance Request

A license continuance request can only be considered when this form is submitted and accepted for processing by the Contractors State License Board (CSLB) within 90 days of the event that caused the license cancellation.

What does an approved continuance allow you to do? After a continuance is approved, a sole ownership, partnership, or joint venture license that has been cancelled can continue normal business operations for a reasonable amount of time, which is determined by Contractors State License Law.

ONLY A SOLE OWNERSHIP, PARTNERSHIP, OR JOINT VENTURE ENTITY LICENSE MAY APPLY FOR A CONTINUANCE. CORPORATIONS AND LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES ARE NOT ELIGIBLE FOR A CONTINUANCE.

Sole Ownership License: If the owner dies, a member of his or her immediate family may request a continuance. CSLB defines immediate family as the spouse, father, mother, brother, sister, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, grandson, granddaughter, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law. When requesting a continuance due to the death of a sole owner, a copy of the deceased individual's death certificate or obituary notice is required.

Partnership License: Any remaining general partners (no limited partners) listed on the license may request a continuance. In the event of a general partner's death, an approved continuance allows the remaining partners to complete projects in progress and undertake new work. When requesting a continuance due to the death of a general partner, a copy of the deceased general partner's death certificate or obituary notice is required.

When a general partner disassociates, the remaining partners can complete projects in progress, but no new work may be undertaken. A list of the projects that were in progress prior to the date of disassociation and copies of the contracts for the projects must be provided along with this completed form.

Joint Venture License: If an entity disassociates, the remaining business entities listed on the license may request a continuance. A list of the projects that were in progress prior to the disassociation date and copies of the contracts for the projects must be provided along with this completed form.
